

Up & Coming

SATURDAY 10/6

BRONZE FAWN, RENEGADE, DAVID KYLE & THE INVISIBLES

(Towne Lounge, 714 SW 20th Pl) Take this as a warning: Don't be seduced by the gentle, airy shoegaze of Bronze Fawn. Yes, it is true, the beautifully constructed melodies, delicately pieced together by effects pedals, are somewhat like lightly dozing within a thick fog of aural intoxication. And that's when they strike, when your eyelids are closed and you're stifling a yawn. That is when Bronze Fawn unveil their true weapon—the unhampered ability to rock. Gone is the shoegaze, gone is the melodic fog, replaced by a wall of sonic noise, two ton drums, and distortion heavy guitars. Sure as anything you'll be awake now, hair blown back, ears popped, wondering just what you've got yourself in to. Bronze Fawn, they'll surprise you—just don't say I didn't warn you.
